

I see no reason for the federal government to overturn a state law that is better for the tax-payer than the federal version of the same. I think the New Jersey version of DO-NOT-CALL list is working very well for me. I no longer have the disrupting calls at all hours of the day as I did prior to the New Jersey DO-NO-CALL list.